

PARENTS BECAME WILDLY EXCITED

Rumor That Hebrew Children Were Being Slaughtered in Public Schools.

RIOT ON THE EAST SIDE

PANIC IN NEW YORK TENEMENT DISTRICT.

New York, June 27.—A rumor that children's throats were being cut in the public schools resulted in such excitement that panic in the lower east side that fifteen schools, with 25,000 pupils, were closed for the day. The trouble was caused by operations performed on several children yesterday for the removal of adenoids, a fungus growth in the back of the throat and nasal cavity. The operation is not a dangerous one, but the reports concerning what had been done spread rapidly today, especially among the Hebrews, and became changed into reports that the Russian anti-Jewish massacres were to be repeated in this country, and that a start was being made on Hebrew children in the schools.

Parents Were Frantic.

It was not long until many of the schools were surrounded by crowds of frantic-stricken parents bent on rescuing their little ones from what they believed to be impending death. These crowds became so threatening that hurried calls for protection were sent to the nearest police stations. All the patrolmen available were sent out to restore order. In one instance a police officer was closed for an hour to permit the court attendants and officials to aid the police in restoring order. The district affected extends from the Bowery to the East river and from Catherine to Houston streets.

Fears Were Quieted.

As the little ones marched out the scenes were pathetic, weeping women rushing forward to clasp their children in their arms in thanksgiving. Through out the disorders the several hundred extra policemen on duty were powerless to restore order. The district affected extends from the Bowery to the East river and from Catherine to Houston streets.

YOUNG THAW IS PERFECTLY SANE

sailed from Hamburg on May 10 and arrived on May 13. Thaw's name did not appear on the passenger list. Detectives are now trying to find out where Mrs. Thaw spent the time between her husband's departure for England and his return. Her friends say she did not leave New York City.

The Tribune, after commenting on the alibi's decision, that Thaw is sane, will say tomorrow:

"This fact, it is now believed, will change the defense and will cause Thaw eventually to be brought to trial under indictment for homicide."

Chance of Acquittal.

"It is the belief of the defense that Thaw has an excellent chance of acquittal. Various episodes in the life of the Stanford White, John Deane, corporation counsel, and his daughter, and a friend, a close business associate of Mr. White, were booked to sail today on the Le Providence, the new flyer of the French Trans-Atlantic line. Not only were they booked to sail, but it is understood that excellent authority that Harry K. Thaw and Mrs. Thaw were also to be passengers on this boat. Owing to the statements of Mr. and Mrs. Thaw against White, the fact that they were all to be passengers on the same boat puzzles the police as far as the case has gone."

BOTH CREWS IN PROPER SHAPE

Result of the Yale-Harvard Regatta a Matter of Great Uncertainty.

New London, Conn., June 27.—Not in many years has such a difference of opinion been held by college men and others as to the probable outcome of the 'Varsity eight event of the Yale-Harvard regatta on the Thames as prevails here tonight.

Both crews have been doing record-breaking in their time trials and that they are in splendid physical condition is evident. The most important factor appears to be whether Coach J. Kennedy has a better stroke in his Yale crew than Coach Wray has in his adaptation in the Harvard eight of the less graceful English style.

The feature of the closing day of training was the rowing of two mile races, which are now looked upon as being of considerable interest to men in quarters. These were the four-oared mile race for freshmen substitutes, which Yale won by a quarter of a length, and the half-mile race for graduate crews for the Graves cup, which went to the Harvard boat by one and a quarter lengths. Last year Harvard won both of these events.

As the result of the toss tonight for positions, Harvard was fortunate to call the turn on two of these, having the choice in the 'Varsity all four-oared races. Yale won the toss in the freshmen event. Harvard took the West Lane for the 'Varsity and the East Lane for the four-oared, while Yale took the east course for the freshmen. This means that Harvard has a slight advantage of the tide if there is any in the 'Varsity race, which will be rowed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon on a full tide, and perhaps will be similarly favored for the four-oared race, which will be rowed about 10:15 o'clock in the morning, immediately following the 'Varsity race.

FARMINGTON WOMAN HURT.

Attempts to Alight From Moving Train and Is Hurled to Ground.

(Special to The Herald.)
Farmington, June 27.—Mrs. John Clawson of Farmington was seriously injured at Lagoon at noon today. She boarded a southbound train by mistake, and, as it is believed she intended going to the county fair celebration at Kayville. When the train had gone some distance south from the depot it is supposed she realized her mistake and attempted to alight from the rapidly moving train. The speed was evidently greater than she thought, for she was thrown violently to the ground, her head coming in contact with some hard substance, which rendered her unconscious. The train was stopped and she was taken to the Latter-day Saints hospital in Salt Lake. At midnight Mrs. Clawson was reported to be doing well and to be out of danger.

MANY WANT BOOK ON UTAH

Demand Is Heavy for Rio Grande's Beautiful Book on the State.

"A Glimpse of Utah," the pamphlet issued recently by the passenger department of the Denver & Rio Grande is in great demand throughout the country. Tourists who secured copies of this book while passing through Salt Lake and other Utah points have written from their homes in the east and west for additional copies. Others have asked for copies of the book. The half-toned illustrations of historic points and industrial features of Utah, are excellent. These are printed on heavy, smooth paper. The type is clean, clear and well arranged.

The information contained in the pamphlet was written by Judge E. P. Colborn. The book is divided into chapters each illustrated.

The subjects treated in separate chapters are: the early settlement of the Mormons and Gentiles, natural wonders, cities and towns, agriculture, fruit growing, stock raising, dairying, poultry and bee raising, mines and minerals, iron, coal and other hydro-carbons, smelting and ore reduction, manufacturing, Utah reservation, railroads, hunting and fishing, climate and attractions. The blue cover on front shows a river winding through the hills, and reflecting a golden sunburst. Many Salt Lake residents are securing copies of the book to send to friends in the east.

If you want the children to enjoy themselves, just send them to Calder's.

DEFENDANTS IN LAND FRAUD CASES WILL BE TRIED IN OREGON

Los Angeles Defendants in Land Fraud Cases Will Be Tried in Oregon.

Los Angeles, June 27.—The real battle in the land fraud cases in which A. H. Hedderly, D. M. Goodwin, W. D. Gould, G. L. Stearns, L. R. Myers, Richard Hynes, Warren Gillean and R. W. Keener, prominent men of Los Angeles, were implicated by an Oregon grand jury, was before W. M. Vandye, United States commissioner. Today the indictment charging the crime was presented on its merits in the preliminary hearing.

Conspiracy Is Charged.

For two days counsel for the government and the defendants argued on demurrers to the indictment and a motion to dismiss the case on technicalities, but the court has overruled this contention. As outlined by the arguments during the last few days, attorneys for the defendants will attempt to show that conspiracy exists among government officials to hold the Los Angeles defendants in order to prevent them from giving testimony in favor of other defendants in San Francisco and Oregon. It will undertake to show also that the Los Angeles defendants were not criminally connected with the acts alleged to have been committed against the government.

Must Go to Oregon.

The commissioner overruled the defendants upon every material objection. Today District Attorney General introduced the indictment itself as evidence and announced that he rested his case. This had the effect of shutting off the introduction of further testimony.

Arguments were then made, and late this afternoon United States Commissioner Vandye ruled that the Los Angeles defendants would have to go to Oregon to stand trial there.

STATE NEWS

COUNTY FAIR WILL BE HELD
Enthusiastic Meeting of Citizens Held at Lagoon to Launch Project.

Kaysville, June 27.—This has been County Fair day at Kaysville. The project of holding a fair this year for Davis county was sprung some time ago and has been pushed by the united efforts of the Bountiful, Farmington and Kayville Commercial clubs and by leading citizens of the county, and today was placed on a business footing, and will be carried forward by a committee of prominent business men who were named for that purpose.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon a monster mass meeting was held in the Kayville Music hall. The hall had been reserved for the people from every part of the county to assemble and decide the fair proposition. In order to enable a large number as possible to attend the mass meeting the business houses throughout the county closed the doors at 1 p. m. From the north end of the county on hundred or more business men and farmers drove in, and special trains on the Salt Lake & Ogden carried the Bountiful and Kayville bands, members of the Commercial clubs of Bountiful, Farmington and several hundred business men and their ladies, all of whom took part in the meeting. John G. M. Barnes of Kaysville presided, and Palmer of Farmington acted as secretary.

The meeting was a stirring affair, and the bands of the county played stirring selections, and Henry H. Blood of Kaysville acted as a means of promoting the agricultural and other industries of the county. State Senator Simon Bamberger was present and upon receiving a stirring address in favor of the proposition, and tendered the free use of the Lagoon grounds for the fair, and he heretofore has been so over after the close of the Lagoon season. Mr. Bamberger created much enthusiasm by referring to Davis county as one of the most blessed districts of the state.

At the conclusion of his address E. B. Clark of Farmington moved that the county fair be held on the Lagoon street, which was carried without a dissenting voice.

The meeting then proceeded to name a committee of representatives from every part of the county to carry out the project. The personnel of the committee was as follows: J. H. Nelson, South Bountiful; Joseph Argyle, Bountiful; W. C. Streeter, Bountiful; E. B. Clark, Farmington; Hyrum Stewart, Kaysville; Elias Adams, Layton; Joseph E. Layton, West Layton; James G. Wood, Syracuse; O. D. Haddock, Clinton; Thomas H. Peck, South Weber; George R. Smith, South Hooper.

It was revealed that each of the three commercial clubs of the county have the privilege of naming one member of this committee. Since the meeting was a member of the committee by unanimous vote, and on motion of Henry H. Blood the committee of the Lagoon for the fair was accepted.

At the conclusion of the meeting the committee came together and decided to hold its first meeting on next Monday and perfect the business. About 200 people were present and much enthusiasm prevailed.

PROVO NEWS NOTES.
Provo, June 26.—At the Cluff family reunion held here a few days ago the following interesting statistics were presented: David Cluff and wife came to Utah in 1850 with a family of one daughter and eleven sons. Mr. Cluff was married in the family in Utah. The family now, 112 years after the birth of David Cluff, numbers nearly 300, including members of the family. Since coming to Utah 180 years have been spent by members of the family in the mission field and 90 years as church officials, such as presidents of stakes, bishops and a civic and military capacity. The family is publishing a history of the family of which H. H. Cluff, Walter Cluff and Thad H. Cluff are the editors.

The William M. Roylance company shipped a carload of strawberries to the eastern market today, the first car ever shipped out of this section of the state if not only Utah. Mr. Roylance expects to follow this with other carload lot shipments this summer.

Sheriff Whitehead was over from Eureka today on official business.

W. E. Rydahl will deliver the Fourth of July oration in American Fork.

Lafayette Alford and family, formerly of Emery, and later of Salem, Ida., have removed to Provo to reside. Mr. Alford has bought the old Leatham home in the Second ward.

C. E. Loose is back from Bodie, Cal., where he has been inspecting his big mining properties.

A marriage license has been issued to Andrew B. Morgan and Vivian Reece, both of Spanish Fork.

E. A. Box is here from the state auditor's office examining some of the county records.

A marriage license has been issued to Chris Larson of Springville and Mina Bird of Mapleton.

The following registration agents have been appointed by the board of county commissioners to pass an ordinance today granting a franchise for the construction of a telephone line to the United States government over the county roads from Spanish Fork to Diamond Fork in Spanish Fork canyon. W. D. Beers of the reclamation service was here in the interest of the government survey.

The Butchers and Grocers' association of this city have decided to give their employees a half holiday every Thursday during the months of July and August. A committee has been appointed to confer with other merchants with a view to making the holiday general with all business concerns.

CHARACTERISTIC SPEECH BY GENERAL GROSVENOR, PRODDED BY CHAMP CLARK.

Washington, June 27.—The house was in session for three hours tonight, the speeches taking a wide range, though the pending bill was the customs administrative act. General Grosvenor of Ohio delivered a tariff "stand pat" speech, and in a colloquy with the rank & file Missions suggested that there were "a number of very able men and a good many editorial representatives abroad in the land who favor revision of the tariff."

"It has got to be a kind of song that is sung," he said. "We hear it echoing from the plains of Iowa, where self-seeking politicians are seeking to ride into power upon a mere ill-defined proposition that no man apparently yet understands."

Tariff Reform in Iowa.

Mr. Clark asked if it was not a fact that the majority of the Republicans in Iowa have declared for Mr. Cummins for governor for re-election for a third term as a tariff revision candidate.

Mr. Grosvenor—I do not know that he is to be nominated as a revisionist.

Mr. Watson of Indiana and Mr. Lacey of Iowa suggested that Governor Cummins had said nothing in regard to the tariff this year. Mr. Clark retorted that last November Mr. Cummins said "all the robberies in the world are committed by the life insurance companies in all time did not equal one-fifth of the robberies inflicted by the Dingley bill in one year."

Severe on Cummins.
Mr. Grosvenor—Any man who will say that is unworthy of the confidence of one American citizen, let alone the majority of the states. Such a man as that is a false liberator of every decent aspiration of American citizenship.

Mr. Grosvenor declared that Governor Cummins had "eschewed the tariff question during the last six weeks of the campaign."

"When the Iowa Republican convention, which meets in August," he added, "adopts an expression in favor of revision of the tariff without qualification it will be time enough for the gentleman from Missouri to get happy, and not till then."

At 11 p. m. the house adjourned till 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.
